Mrs. William L. Royall, formerly of this city, after spending the spring months with her son, Lieutenant William L. Royall, coast artillery, stationed at Fort Totten, L. I., and with her daughter, Mrs. Clarence S. A. Williams, at East Orange, N. J., has been at the Glenside-Chatham Hotel, Atlantic City, for a stay of six weeks.

Mrs. Royall will leave shortly to be the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Barker G. Hamill, at her cottage near Edgewater Park for the summer season. Mrs. Royall is convalescing from a recent illness in Atlantic City.

"Vanity Fair" on Saturday.
Of much interest to Richmond society is the big "Vanity Fair" for the benefit of the Goodland Red Cross, which will take place Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock at "Montrose," Vinta. All sorts of attractions have been planned. The aviation jazz band will play, John Lee, of Lynchburg, will make an address on the American Red Cross and refreshments will be served.

"Montrose" is only fourteen miles from Richmond, on the Cary Street Road, and a great many parties from this city will motor to Goodland for the entertainment Saturday. The public is cordially invited to attend.

At Cape May.
Captain and Mrs. Calvin Satterfield, Jr., have arrived at Cape May, New Jersey, from Fort Sill, Okla., and they will be established at the Chalfonte for an extended stay during the late season before coming to Richmond to visit Dr. and Mrs. James Morris at their home in this city. Captain Satterfield has been furloughed because of recent illness. Mrs. Satterfield joined him at Fort Sill in January, after a short stay in Richmond, when she returned from Annapolis, Md., where her husband was stationed for several months before being ordered to Fort Sill for intensive training.

Luncheon Saturday.
All fraternal women of Richmond are urged to be present at the annual luncheon of the Richmond Chapter of the Pan Hellenic Club, which will be held at 1 o'clock Saturday afternoon at the University Club. Places may be reserved by calling Miss Bell, Boulevard 2847-W, or Mrs. J. A. Connolly, Boulevard 434.

May Fete Thursday.
Committees for the May fete at "Paxton" Thursday afternoon have arranged many attractions to insure the patrons a most enjoyable entertainment. The dancing committee, Mrs. E. V. Valentine, chairman, with Mrs. W. A. Powers and Mrs. J. Ambler Johnston as assistants, have a full program, including dances by Miss Estelle Dennis, with several other attractive features. Bridge tables can be reserved through Mrs. F. E. Nolting and Mrs. Frank Christian, and the guests will be received by Miss Emily Harvie, Mrs. Walter K. Martin, Mrs. John L. Williams and Mrs. George W. Hagby. The fete is from 4 to 7 o'clock, and will be given under the auspices of the Female Humane Association, Mrs. Lewis C. Williams, president. The flower booth will be in charge of Mrs. McNeill and Mrs. Robert H. Talley. Miss Annie Christian and Mrs. John Johnston will be in charge of the novelties for the entertainment, which includes Miss Mary Maury Robinson, Mrs. William Ruffin Cox and Mrs. Fred Scott. There will be dancing and bridge, and many other delightful features have been arranged for the guests who attend.

Automobiles will meet the West-hampton cars at 10:15.
